

2009 Read & Win Program

What: An incentive program for students in grades Kindergarten to 8th Grade to read at least three books during summer vacation, sponsored by Champlain Valley Exposition and the Champlain Valley Fair, which runs August 29 to September 7, 2009.

Where: City, town and village libraries across Vermont.

When: Program runs June 22 through August 14, 2009. Free admission for Read & Win participants at the Champlain Valley Fair is Monday, August 31.

How: Books need to be checked out and the student registered at the participating library to qualify for ribbon.

How it works:

1. When students say they want to participate, librarian will present voucher form to student when they check out their first book.
2. Student takes voucher home and upon completion of reading three books, a parent/guardian signs the voucher.
3. Student brings voucher back to library and librarian signs voucher and gives student the Read & Win ribbon, which gives the student free admission to the Champlain Valley Fair on Monday, August 31.
4. Student should wear the ribbon for free entrance to the Fair on August 31.
5. A special recognition program for participating students and their families will be held at noon in the Circus Big Top on the midway. Curly the Cow, the Fair's mascot will be on hand to meet the readers and have pictures taken.
