

2020 Vermont Agricultural Hall of Fame Nomination Form

The Vermont Agricultural Hall of Fame was founded in 2003 to recognize Vermonters who've made an outstanding impact on agriculture in our state.

Nominations can be made in three categories: Emerging Leader, Ag Innovator, and Lifetime Achievement (see descriptions below)

To be eligible for the Vermont Agricultural Hall of Fame in any of the three categories, nominees should play a significant role in Vermont agriculture, including but not limited to: farmers, ag business owners, service providers, researchers, educators, outreach professionals, public servants, and employees or leaders of non-profit and government organizations.

You may nominate one individual per category.

Nominations will be accepted until noon on May 1, 2020.
